NORRISTOWN, Pa. (May 13, 2025) — In a ceremony today at the Montgomery County Public Safety Training Campus, Montgomery County District Attorney Kevin R. Steele honored three civilians, 21 law enforcement officers, an entire police department and a police K-9 with commendations for their extraordinary efforts and exemplary work in protecting and serving the residents of Montgomery County. Of those members of law enforcement honored, two police officers were honored with “Heroism” awards for their actions to protect the citizens of Montgomery County.

“Montgomery County has some of the finest law enforcement officers anywhere, and I’m honored to be able to showcase their incredible bravery, exceptional work and dedication to protecting and serving Montgomery County residents. I’m also very happy to recognize these civilians who’ve made a difference by their selfless acts to help victims,” said DA Steele. “Montgomery County wouldn’t be the safe and wonderful place it is without this teamwork between law enforcement departments and agencies with assistance from civilians.”

Honorees who received commendations and a brief description are:

LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMENDATION FOR HEROISM

Sgt. Andrew Adams, Plymouth Township Police Department

Ofc. Benjamin Brunner, Plymouth Township Police Department
